

Adverbs of Manner is related to happening of something. It suggests or Depicts that how something happens.

We can use adverb of manner in following Positions in a sentence.

1. It usually comes after the main verb

Examples:

- He works faster.
- She can cook nicely.
- He runs quickly.
- I will eat later.
- He sings beautifully
- He played well.
- The dog runs fast (fast is an irregular verb so don't say 'fastly')
- He tried hard. (~~Hardly~~)

2. Sometimes adverbs of manner comes after the direct object.

Examples:

- He can beat the drum harder.
- She can makeup Bridals Beautifully.
- She types the message hurriedly.

3. We can also use adverb of manner before verb in some cases.

Examples:

- She can Beautifully Makeup Bridals.
- She hurriedly types the message.

Note: we can should never place adverb of manner between a verb and its direct object.

Example:

- She types hurriedly the message. (Incorrect)
- She hurriedly types the message. (Correct)

4. In the case of a sentence with preposition always use adverb of manner before preposition or after the main object.

Examples:

- He can play nicely in the game. (correct)
- He can play in the game, nicely. (correct)

5. Sometimes we use adverb of manner at the start of a sentence.

Examples:

- Hardly and barely, we crossed the river.

6. When more than one verbs are in a sentence.

When there is more than one verb in a sentence, the position of the adverb is very important.

1. Placed with verb (It will modify the meaning of verb)
2. At the end of the sentence (it describes the manner of the whole action described in the clause)

Examples:

- She slowly decided to leave the party. (slowly modifies decided.)
- She decided to leave the party slowly. (slowly modifies leave the party.)

7. Case of Intransitive verbs. (Verbs without object)

Adverb of manner should place immediately after the verb.

Examples:

His enemies were killed badly.