

Phrasal Verbs with

Set

Set About

(start doing something)

We will set about constructing his house.

www.EngDic.org

Set Apart

(distinguish between)

How can we set apart these stones?

www.EngDic.org

Set aside

(save for later)

I will set aside this mutton for us.

www.EngDic.org

Set Back

(delay)

They don't like to set back their task.

www.EngDic.org

Set in

(take hold)

Miss Aleena set in the all work.

www.EngDic.org

Set off

(start)

We will set off for America.

www.EngDic.org

Set on

(attack)

Kindly listen to her carefully, otherwise she will set on you.

www.EngDic.org

Set Out

(begin a journey)

I have done with my packing to set out for UK.

www.EngDic.org

Set up

(assemble/install)

The mechanic will set up all these small parts of your Bike.

www.EngDic.org

Phrasal Verbs with

Set

Set About

(Initiating any action)

We are going to set about a tea stall.

www.EngDic.org

Set Forth

(starting a journey)

Adam set forth with his brand new car.

www.EngDic.org

Set Up

(establishing himself/herself in something)

He set himself up as a mechanical engineer.

www.EngDic.org

Set upon

(Attack someone)

We were set upon by street robbers.

www.EngDic.org

Set Down

(write)

I will set down the will for you.

www.EngDic.org

Set in

(take root)

That was the point at which rot set in.

www.EngDic.org

Set Back

(Remove from or allow distance)

You have to set it back from the road.

www.EngDic.org

Set Out

(Leave or move)

Please set out and don't waste your time.

www.EngDic.org

Set Aside

(Placing something separate for any special purpose)

I set aside this precious stone for you.

www.EngDic.org