

Active Passive Voice

100 Examples

Active	She is going to deliver the letters.	Active	He was writing a letter.
Passive	The letters are going to be delivered.	Passive	A letter was being written by him.
Active	I'm going to make a cake.	Active	She had delivered the letters.
Passive	A cake is going to be made.	Passive	The letters had been delivered.
Active	She will deliver the letters.	Active	I should have made a cake.
Passive	The letters will be delivered.	Passive	A cake should have been made.
Active	I have made a cake.	Active	I read an interesting novel.
Passive	A cake has been made.	Passive	An interesting novel is read.
Active	Sapna helps the old lady.	Active	I had made a cake.
Passive	The old lady was helped by Sapna.	Passive	A cake had been made.
Active	She must deliver the letters.	Active	I invited you to the party.
Passive	The letters must be delivered.	Passive	You were invited by me to the party.
Active	She delivered the letters.	Active	Tom painted the entire house.
Passive	The letters were delivered.	Passive	The entire house was painted by Tom.
Active	I was making a cake.	Active	She has delivered the letters.
Passive	A cake was being made.	Passive	The letters have been delivered.
Active	Did you show me the dress?	Active	I must make a cake.
Passive	Was I shown the dress by you?	Passive	A cake must be made.
Active	She has to deliver the letters.	Active	I am eating breakfast.
Passive	The letters have to be delivered.	Passive	The breakfast is being eaten by me.
Active	They called off the meeting.	Active	Mother is cooking lunch in the kitchen.
Passive	The meeting was called off.	Passive	Lunch is being cooked in the kitchen.
Active	Sue changed the flat tire.	Active	We will be watching the match.
Passive	The flat tire was changed by Sue.	Passive	The match will be being watched by us.
Active	They will send him away to school.	Active	I'm making a cake.
Passive	He will be sent away to school.	Passive	A cake is being made.